WILLIAM FRANCIS BLACKBURN

William Francis Blackburn was the son of Thomas R. Blackburn and Elizabeth Francis, daughter of William Francis of Scott County, Kentucky. His paternal grandfather was James Blackburn and both of his grandfathers emigrated to Kentucky from Virginia between the years of 1780 and 1790.

William Francis Blackburn was brought up on his father's farm and received his education from the common schools and private instructors. He left his home in Kentucky and settled in Shelby County, Missouri, in 1850. He was one of the first to build and settle in Hunnewell, Missouri, having moved there in 1856 to engage in the mercantile business. At the organization of the Hunnewell Bank in 1889, he was elected cashier and held this position until his death at his home May 21, 1901, at the age of 76 years.

William Francis Blackburn was a student of science and literature, a cultured gentleman, a wise, just and conservative business man who was held in high esteem by all who knew him.

He represented Shelby County in the State Legislature during one term and declined a second nomination because he preferred private life to public service.

William Francis Blackburn was married twice:

First to Charlotte Maddox of Shelby county, Missouri, on February 16, 1851, and to them were born five children:

Elizabeth, born October 23, 1851, in Shelby County

William Conrad, born April 10, 1853, in Grant County, Kentucky

Cassius, June 14, 1854, in Grant County, Kentucky

Martha Jane Blackburn, born August 7, 1855, in Shelby County.

Joseph Francis, April 5, 1858, in Hunnewell, Missouri

Second marriage was to Emily Jane Ely in Ralls County, Missouri on June 5, 1860
To them were born nine children:

Robert Ely, June 16, 1861, in Ralls County, Missouri

Edward Lee, November 14, 1862, in London, Ontario

Clarence, October 27, 1864, in Quincy, Illinois

Harriet Rebecca, August 11, 1867, in Hunnewell, Missouri

Jasper, August 31, 1869, in Hunnewell, Missouri

Albert Blackburn, August 24, 1871, in Hunnewell, Missouri

A son, died in infancy, January 25, 1874
